BOND CALLED IN ADAMS CASE

In Criminal Common Pleas Court at New London—Robert Adams Forfeited $350 Bond—Continuance in Pavey vs.
Pavey-Non-Support Case.

An adjourned session of the criminal court of common pleas was held in New London Monday morning with Judge Charles B. Waller on the bench.
Two cases were taken up.
Bonds of $350 were called in the case against Robert Adams, charged with illegal sale of liquor. Adams was arrested for selling liquor at what was known as the Railroad avenue. In the police court he was fined $200 from which an appeal was taken to the court of common pleas. Adams was continued until Tuesday, July 6. Pavey pleaded guilty to the charge at the beginning of the term when it was continued for two weeks. Monday morning Attorney Leo Roy Robbins, appearing for the defense stated that the accused had been trying to find right counsel for had been able to receive only promises. The attorney requested time to permit Pavey to secure work when he would take care of his family, but the court thought that the accused should give bonds or promise to support his family. At the recommendation Judge Waller continued the case until Tuesday of next week to allow the accused to make an effort to obtain the bonds to insure his supporting his family.

Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY SPEAKER AT SERVICE.
Took Place of Rev. Mr. Goldie, Detained by illness.

When General Secretary Edwin Hill began the customary open air Y. M. C.
A. service at the Buckingham memorial at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon there were 19 in the group, including the young lady who played the diminutive organ for the gospel hymns. The boy cornetist who lent his energies thereto also. But by the time the speaker had come to the climax of his discourse almost all of the seats were filled, and along the iron fence there was an attentive row of listeners, men, women or two, and quite a string of urinals who seemed to enjoy the services, and particularly the cornet.

Secretary Hill announced that next Sunday Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., would speak, and the Sunday after that Rev. Charles H. Ricketts of Greenville. He said that a short time before he had received a telephone message that Rev. L. McLean Goldie of Yantic, who was down as the speaker, had been taken ill, and having failed to secure a speaker in the short interim, he was forced to take himself. All last summer from June until September every speaker was on hand as planned. He hoped to have Mr.
Goldie later on.

Mr. Hill took his text from the first epistle of John 1:3, "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the children of God. The writer makes the text vital and beautiful of meaning to every one of us. Consider the kind of love this suggests. Among little children, there is a pairing up together for play, they mingle in school life. This is a love at once simple and childlike, pure and beautiful. Boys away at college as roommates or in fraternal life, to have a manly love for each other, a love that comes with chumship, and makes them verily willing to die for each other.
There is the love of a young man for a beautiful young woman in the days of courtship, and how sweet and pure this love, ripening into marriage.
And in the family. But there is a love different from all of these, a love that knows no limit. No man can be what he ought to be unless he has the love thrill in his heart and life of the love of Jesus Christ. The quality and power and reach of the love of God earth cannot give nor tell away.

that Miss Edna Leighton Tyler, daughter of Mrs. Cornelia Osgood Tyler, of always has skill at camera photography, has developed her talent in that regard and has joined the professionals. She has won many compliments for her camera portraits, taken in studio, home, or garden and makes a specialty of autochromes.

Miss Tyler studies with White, the New York specialist and is devoting the ear of his audiences. The films

NO MONEY FOR TRAIN FOR UTAH BLUEJACKETS.

So Crew From Super-Dreadnaught
Did Not Get to Willimantic.

The truth about the visit of the super-dreadnaught Utah to New London has been learned. The massive vessel came into port for the purpose of having the bluejackets participate in the Old Home Week celebration at Willimantic.

But the reason why the bluejackets didn't go to Willimantic, Commander Watson of the Utah says, was because the Willimantic Home Week committee had no money for a special train. The government would not allow expenses for such a purpose. The officers went, however, and were cordially entertained.

TELEPHONE STOCKHOLDERS ACCEPT LEGISLATIVE ACT

Will Increase S. N. E. T. Capital Stock to $20,000,000.

New Haven, Conn., June 28.—The stockholders of the Southern New England Telephone Company in special meeting this afternoon voted to accept the legislative act under which the company is authorized to increase the capital stock to $20,000,000. This was the only business before the stockholders.

Life is mostly a joke to the girl with amiles and perfect teeth.

PARISIAN
SAGE

Men and women whose hair and scalp are excessively oily suffer more in the warmer months than at any other time. The summer's dust and dirt, mingled with the oil, cling to the oily hair and scalp, clog the scalp pores, stiffen the hair roots and make proper cleansing almost impossible.
Parisian Sage is an ideal treatment for this trouble. Wash the hair not often than once a week, but use Parisian Sage twice daily, pouring a little into the parted hair and rubbing briskly right into the scalp with the finger tips. It drives out dandruff, dissolves the excess oil and stimulates the scalp into healthy normal action.
